

Talking Trouble Aotearoa NZ Ltd

Speech-Language Therapy

contact@talkingtroublenz.org 021 103 4842

PO Box 77082, Mt Albert, Auckland 1350

TTANZ Quick Communication Checklist

Today's date
Your name
Profession/Agency
The name of the person you want to refer
How long have you known this person?
What is your role with this person?
What language(s) do you speak with this person?
What languages can they speak, understand, read and write? Please give information about how these languages were learnt, level of proficiency and how frequently the person uses them and for what purpose.
Please note key information about hearing impairment/visual impairment/cognitive difficulties/ any head injury history.
Does this person have hearing aids? Do they wear them?
Does this person have glasses ? What for? Do they wear them?
Does this person take any medication that affects their communication? If so, how does it affect them?
Is this person's communication significantly affected by stress ? Describe how communication is affected. What triggers this person to get stressed?

Copyright © Talking Trouble Aotearoa NZ 17/11/2017 This checklist can be copied and shared for clinical purposes to gather information to help assess and create management plans that address speech, language and communication needs experienced by children, young people and adults. It is not to be sold or changed without written permission from the author.

How easy is it for this person to ...

	Always easy	Mostly easy	Mostly difficult	Always difficult	Don't know
Listen carefully to what is being said
Understand what you are saying to them generally Understand information you give them e.g. about appointments, rules and boundaries, what is going to be happening in the week
Read information e.g. letters
Write things e.g. fill in a form/write a letter
Ask you for things
Explain information to you e.g. tell you what happened, describe how to do something Provide more, and useful information if you tell them that you are not sure you are following their story Understand when you are telling a joke and 'get' the joke
Understand when someone is being sarcastic
Use language to reason and explain their point of view about something that has happened
Negotiate effectively with you using language Understand someone else's perspective when something has happened
Express their own perspective when something has happened
Express their emotions using words
Tell you when they don't know what you mean
Understand time on a clock with hands Understand time concepts when a digital clock is used

Copyright © Talking Trouble Aotearoa NZ 17/11/2017 This checklist can be copied and shared for clinical purposes to gather information to help assess and create management plans that address speech, language and communication needs experienced by children, young people and adults. It is not to be sold or changed without written permission from the author.

When this person is talking have you noticed that they...

	Always	Mostly	Some- times	Never	Don't know
Talk very slowly
Talk very quickly
Stammer/stutter
Use lots of pauses or start the sentence several times or use lots of 'um, um, um, er '
Have trouble finding the words they want to say
Say the wrong word e.g. table instead of chair
Mispronounce words
Use very short 3 – 4 word sentences
Use sentences that are long and complex
Use easy, simple words only
Use words in the wrong order in their sentences
Tell their stories in an order that makes sense to you easily
Use a wide range of vocabulary to express ideas Rely on words like 'thingy' 'that one'
Ask for repetition or clarification when they are not sure what you have said or meant

Is there anything else you think we should know about this person's speaking, listening and understanding?

To discuss a referral to our service for a full assessment or intervention by a speech-language therapist, please contact us contact@talkingtroublenz.org

Copyright © Talking Trouble Aotearoa NZ 17/11/2017 This checklist can be copied and shared for clinical purposes to gather information to help assess and create management plans that address speech, language and communication needs experienced by children, young people and adults. It is not to be sold or changed without written permission from the author.